

ICS Educational Course 22-23 November 2012 Krakow Poland

Day 1

08.00-08.45	Registration
08.45-09.00	Introduction	prof. T Rechberger/ prof D.Rizk
	Session I: The female pelvic floor- pathogenesis of dysfunction	Chair: prof A.Kuhn, prof A.Martan
09.00-10.00	Introduction: prevalence, pathogenesis and consequences of pelvic floor dysfunctions related to pregnancy and childbirth	prof. D.Rizk
10.00-10.30	Obstetric practice and pelvic floor. Episiotomy - when and why?	prof. T.Rechberger
10.30-11.00	Obstetric injuries to pelvic floor - how to avoid and how to manage?	prof. S. Salvatore
11.00-11.30	Q&A	All
11.30-12.00	Coffee break
	Session II: Impact of childbirth on pelvic floor	Chair. prof S. Salvatore, prof. P. Radziszewski
12.00-12.30	Urinary incontinence - description, types and evaluation	dr G.Surkont
12.30-13.00	Obstetric fecal incontinence - evaluation and management	prof. W. Baranowski
13.00-13.30	Pelvic organ prolapse - evaluation and management	prof. D.Rizk
13.30-14.30	Lunch
	Session III: PFD prevention and therapy	Chair. Prof. D.Rizk, prof. W Baranowski.
14.30-15.00	Evolution of surgical methods in the treatment of fecal and urinary incontinence – what are new perspectives?	prof. S. Salvatore
15.00-15.30	The role of physiotherapy - when and how? -	dr G. Surkont
15.30-16.15	Post-natal bladder and bowel management- a nursing perspective.	Mrs R. Mackenzie

Day 2

	Session IV: PFD and surgery	Chair. Prof. T. Rechberger, prof. S. Salvatore
09.00-09.30	Surgical procedure for the treatment of female stress urinary incontinence	prof. A.Martan

09.30-10.00	Surgery of POP- mesh or not to mesh?	prof. W. Baranowski
10.00-10.30	Periurethral injections – when and how?	prof. A Kuhn
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
	Session V: Lower urinary tract symptoms (LUTS) in women	Chair. Prof. W. Baranowski, dr G. Surkont
11.30-12.00	Urodynamic studies in female LUTS – when we really need them	prof. P. Radziszewski
12.00-12.30	Ultrasound examination of patients before and after vaginal tape antiincontionence surgery.	prof. A Martan
12.30-13.00	New therapeutic interventions for female LUTS – (SNS and Botulinum toxin injections)	prof. A. Kuhn
13.30-13.45	Closing Remarks	prof. T. Rechberger/ prof. D. Rizk
13.45-14.45	Lunch	