The ICS annual meeting brings together the most renowned international experts in the research and the treatment of LUTS, incontinence and pelvic floor disorders. Sweden has a long scientific tradition in continence research and many prominent scientists have been engaged in the ICS and its important work.

Gothenburg – where innovation meets culture and nature!

Sweden's second largest city is located on the west coast, at the outlet of the Göta river. Gothenburg, once the centre of the Swedish ship-building industry, has turned into a diverse and lively city full of Swedish design, food and culture. Gothenburg has an international airport which is accessible from many destinations and is only 25 min. away from the city centre and the meeting venue. September days are still long and light and many of the outdoor bars and restaurants are buzzing with people day and night.

Dates for your calendar:

Abstract submission deadline: 1 April 2019

Early bird deadline: 25 June 2019
